

Record of Revision

When changes are made to the continuity plan outside the official cycle of plan review, track and record these changes using this document.

| RevisionNumber | Date of Revision | Individual Making Revision | Section Revised | Description of Revision |
|--------------------|------------------|----------------------------|-----------------|-------------------------|
|                    |                  |                            |                 |                         |
|                    |                  |                            |                 |                         |
|                    |                  |                            |                 |                         |
|                    |                  |                            |                 |                         |
|                    |                  |                            |                 |                         |
|                    |                  |                            |                 |                         |
|                    |                  |                            |                 |                         |
|                    |                  |                            |                 |                         |

This job aid is a component of the free, on-demand CDC training course "Laboratory Continuity of Operations." Find the course at https://reach.cdc.gov/training.